

About Us

-  Home
  - About Us
  - Solutions
  - News
  - Contact Us
  - Vision
  - History
  - Management
-

Wave Technologies, Inc. (WTI) is a young and growing Woman, Native American owned, HUBZone certified, small business

With headquarters in Ponca City, OK and offices in Carson City, NV and Chantilly, VA, WTI provides telecommunications, information technology (IT), ISR systems engineering and integration, and financial and program management support services to government and commercial clients in the intelligence, and national security fields at security levels up to TS/SCI and special programs requiring personnel with polygraphs.

The WTI staff understands the technology and has the experience required to process and exploit data, support the planning, design, development, integration, installation, production engineering, and operations of C4ISR systems, IT solutions, local area networks (LAN), metropolitan area networks (MAN), wide area networks (WAN), and distributed wireless internet environments and support IT system lifecycle engineering and programmatic requirements.

©Wave Technologies, Inc.. All Rights Reserved.